Practical PowerPoint for Professionals Virtual Workshop

Did you know your next meeting could be made more interesting and effective by including a PowerPoint presentation? The meeting's takeaway value on attendees will have a lasting effect. In this class, you will learn to create and rearrange presentations; format text; use drawing objects; work with graphics; and insert tables and charts. Create slide masters; transition effects; and run presentations. We'll show you how easy it is to incorporate into your slide presentation the content that you'd normally be presenting in the meeting into your bulleted slides, charts, diagrams, and multimedia. Finally, we'll show you the tools to run your presentation, interactively, throughout your meeting. So, if you are serious about your meeting attendees getting the most take-away value out of your meetings, you might want to check out this class.

During this workshop you will learn to:

- Create New Presentations which incorporate basic through advanced design principles
- Create new presentations using a variety of presentation templates.
- Format and enhance existing presentations with icons and graphics
- Add and format bulleted text
- Add pictures and graphics to slides
- Insert diagrams including organizational charts, flowcharts, and lists
- Include multimedia including video and sound
- Apply various transitions and animations to add emphasis or interest
- Animate slide content to make it come alive
- Delivering (presenting) your interactive presentation
