Building a Diverse and Inclusive Work Environment: Understanding Equity, Diversity and Inclusion to Flourish in the 21st Century Virtual Workshop

Today’s global business environment requires strong inclusive leaders. The United States is diverse. Data tells us that Millennials are now the largest generation in American history and 44% of them classify themselves as something other than “white” while a majority (52%) of children under the age of 5 are classified as being part of an ethnic group. It's the responsibility of a company to provide its workers an inclusive workplace regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race, color, religion, national origin and disability. However, the reality is that many organizations aren't establishing a culture of belonging. This class will help you:

- Better understand equity, diversity and inclusion and its impact on your workplace
- Put inclusive leadership into immediate action to build collaborative, results-driven teams

During this course, you will learn:

- How to build a brave and inclusive work environment
- How to capitalize on everyone's skills for team success
- How to develop inclusive leaders to compete for talent and retain the talent you already have.
